Offer to Surrender Made By One Villa Commander—Apache Indians to Follow Trail for Army.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
San Antonio, Texas, April 4.—Official admission of the belief that Francisco Villa has fled far beyond the American forces and now is operating south of Chihuahua City was made at General Funston's headquarters today.

PROTECTING LINES

Washington, April 4.—General Funston advised the War Department today he was sending more troops into Mexico from Columbus, N. M., to protect the line of communication with General Pershing. He did not state whether any additional troops had been sent forward today to the military base.

El Paso, Texas, April 4.—Reports received here today from Mexican sources supported the story brought from the interior yesterday by a Mexican to the effect that Villa with a few of his most trusted followers had fled far to the south of Sateve and toward Parral.

The report said that the bandit had already reached that town, but was generally believed that this at least was premature.

There is little question any longer at the border that Villa is heading for Torreon, in the neighborhood of which city he will find Canuto Reyes and his most trusted lieutenants.

WANT TO QUIT

Torreon, Mexico, April 4.—General Canuto Reyes, commanding the Villistas in this locality, has sent a message to General Trevino, Carranza commander, offering to surrender all his forces if given amnesty. This information was given out today by General Trevino.

Pretty little Jackie Saunders leads the list of stars at the Empire this week appearing Tuesday in a Gold Rooster feature "The Shrine of Happiness." Miss Saunders takes the part of a shy and unsophisticated country girl, a new role for her. The scenes are laid in picturesque southern California and the film is hand colored.

"Salvation Nell," an adaptation from the famous stage production, featuring Beatriz Michelena, is the feature for Wednesday. The play is based on the founding of the Salvation Army in London's notorious East End forty years ago.

Thursday brings a variety of good films, including the first chapter of the Ruth Roland-Frank Mayo starred serial, "The Red Circle," a story of heredity, love and adventure.

Bessie Barriscale is the lead in "The Mating," Friday, a strong Mutual feature of Ince direction concerning the love affair of a varsity eleven star and dainty co-ed.

Saturday—Second episode of "The Strange Case of Mary Page," also Anita Stewart and Earle Williams in "The Painted World."

WONDERLAND.

Lou Tellegen, noted stage lead among whose many successes was his recent acquirement in matrimony of Geraldine Farrar, may be seen in the stellar role of "The Explorer," Wednesday at the Wonderland, the only screen play to date in which he has appeared. "The Explorer" is a gripping Paramount feature.

Just as bewitching and as full of pep as ever, Elsie Janis appears again at the Wonderland Friday in another of her own plays, "Twas Even Thus," in every respect an Elsie Janis production.

Tuesday the Wonderland has Holbrook Blin and Fannia Marinoff, in "Life's Whirlpool."

COLONIAL.

Dorothy Gish, Owen Moore and George Fawcett comprise the interesting list of leads appearing on the Colonial screen Monday and Tuesday in "Betty of Greystone," a fine Arts Triangle feature. The story is a quaint screen narrative of love and life in rural New England.

Roscoe Arbuckle and Mabel Normand, comedy team extraordinary, furnish lots of fun in "Bright Lights," Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle, America's most notable fancy dance artists and originators, come to the Colonial Wednesday in "The Whirl of Life," a clever play dealing with their own life experiences.

The immortal Billie Burke, idol of many footlight productions now among the screen favorites, appears Thursday and Friday in her great stage success, "Peggy." The screen production gives the happy-go-lucky Peggy a freer range for her versatile part and is the more realistic for the genuineness of its Scottish scenic features.

An all star Keystone comic accompanies the Thursday-Friday program.

PALACE.

After weeks of absence, William Farnum admirers will welcome the return of the great shadowgraph star Tuesday in one of his greatest of recent triumphs, "Fighting Blood," an intense and vigorous story of domestic strife in the hills of old Kentucky.

Wednesday the Palace offers "Damaged Goods," a gripping screen version of the great sex drama of that name, presenting Richard Bennett.

"The House of a Thousand Candles," V. L. S. E. feature Thursday, is a true-to-detail adaption from Meredith Micholson's very popular novel of that name and presents an all-star company.

Saturday—Helen Holmes in "The Girl and the Game."

"BETTY'S CAMPAIGN" WITH LOCAL TALENT

Jolly Musical Satire at Opera House April 12th.

One of the cleverest and funniest entertainments seen in Washington for sometime will be the production of "Betty's Campaign," at the Opera House, April 12th.

The city's best talent will appear in the cast and from the reports of the rehearsals the play promises to be a "scream" from start to finish. The entertainment is full of pretty music, clever specialties, witty dialog and ridiculous situations. It is a harmless satire on politics forty years hence.

It is to be given under the auspices of the Loyal Daughters Class of the Christian church who put on "Down in Alabama," last October.

To Be Expected
The criticism that Congress is "dawdling" in its work has brought a hot retort from Speaker Champ Clark. The speaker says the statements are bold and malicious and also idiotic and that the present congress has worked more steadily and industriously than any legislative body for the last twenty-four years.

Speaker Clark's characteristically bitter reply and the sweeping criticisms, which have been given wide publicity, confirm the suspicion which a great many people have held, for some months, that there is certain to be, especially at election time, a wide disagreement as to the value and the range of the work done by the present congress.

The present national administration, in all its branches, executive, legislative and judicial, has been face to face, almost continuously with some of the gravest problems and some of the most acute crises which any national administration has ever encountered.

Americans are certain to differ and differ radically on the manner in which the public work is done, both before and after it is done.

Those differences are especially marked among politicians and the more intense the partisan feeling the wider the disagreement.

Speaker Clark, who has remained "in his shell" for a long time, should curb his temper and meet all criticisms with logical answers. There never was, in the history of the country, a national administration which escaped criticism. Speaker Clark should be neither surprised nor angry that the present administration is being subjected to some very harsh criticism. He should meet it fairly, squarely and good naturedly.

Roosevelt's Chances Growing

As the time for holding the next Republican national convention approaches, the figure of Ex-President Roosevelt, as a possible nominee, grows to more formidable proportions.

While Colonel Roosevelt has steadfastly declined to allow his name to appear upon the presidential primary ballots in any of the states, that does not, of course, disqualify him from becoming the nominee of the national convention.

Whether Colonel Roosevelt will be the convention nominee or not, of course, is a matter of opinion and that opinion is biased, more or less, by political preferences. The ex-president has many enthusiastic and influential admirers and adherents, perhaps as large a personal following as any other living American, and that he will be a big figure in the convention is certain.

Barring the possible entrance of Justice Hughes, who has repeatedly announced that he will not accept the nomination, there will be no more colossal figure in the convention at Chicago than Colonel Roosevelt.

Even those opposed to Colonel Roosevelt realize that the Chicago convention must avoid, if it is possible to do so, "contravening" him and that it is going to be a difficult task to choose a candidate acceptable to both the progressives and the "regulars" all admit.

The best proof of the possibility of Colonel Roosevelt's nomination and the growth of the sentiment for him is to be found in the bitter attacks now being made on him in the partisan press.

The Aeroplane in Mexico

As nearly every body predicted when the punitive expedition into Mexico was launched the aeroplane is proving of great assistance to the United States troops.

While confirmation is lacking, army officers are inclined to credit the report that the aviators located Villa's bandit camp near San Geronimo preceding the surprise attack by Colonel Dodd last week in which the brigands were badly worsted.

In the memorable campaigns of the seventies and eighties against the outlaw Indian bands infesting the northwest and southwest the cavalry was able to search out and run down the desperadoes without the assistance of the aeroplane. How much easier those difficult tasks could have been made if the aeroplane had been available can be realized at once.

Villa has found it a far more difficult task to escape from the cavalry of the United States supported as it is by its up to date aeroplane squad which can, with ease, cross over the most difficult mountain barriers and search with the eye and the certainty of the eagle every pass and crevice in the rough country.

With the aeroplane as an aid many weary miles of travel will be saved to the pursuing army. The whirring of the rotors of the all-seeing aeroplane as it circles around the lofty peaks, across the deep chasms and canyons, secure from attack will soon, if it has not done so already, strike terror to the pursued bandits.

The aeroplanes can literally search the country for miles in every direction while the army rests. The cavalry can make every mile traversed count toward the ultimate end.

Poetry For Today

FLAG DAY.

A new banner waves in our city today.
A banner just newly unfurled.
But the message it brings
On its blue and white wings,
Is as old as the dawn of the world.
Joyful the tidings this banner proclaims:
"A baby lives here" is its song.
To his presence give heed;
Take account of his need:
Make right for him all that is wrong.

From the dawn of the world to the dawn of today
Man's hope in a baby has lain.
For the smile on his face
Is the goal of the race,—
Through darkness and infinite pain.
We hear thee,—the babes of our city,
And pledge thee our faith to the end!
Wherever they need
With thought and with deed,
Thy uttermost kingdom defend!

The Rule of a Higher Court

THE scene was in a police court, and a melancholy looking and generally dilapidated specimen of masculine humanity was arraigned before the bar of justice, says Case and Comment.
"Do you realize, John Hays," said the judge, "that you are guilty of contempt of court, sir, and that you may be sent to the chain gang for six months for refusing to go home quietly? I will permit you to join your family if your court conduct shows you worthy of parole. Once again, will you go directly home from here?" The judge was plainly indignant.
But Hays merely shivered and stubbornly shook his head, "No, sir."
"Am I to understand you prefer jail to home?" his honor demanded. "Have you no conscience?"
"It ain't my conscience, judge," Hays replied sadly; "it's my mother-in-law. She dared me to come back."

Live Stock Association Demands an Investigation.

Washington, April 4.—Disregarding an offer by the largest packing interest of the country to submit to an investigation by the department of agriculture, representatives of the live stock growers appeared before the house judiciary subcommittee and demanded an inquiry into every angle of the industry, particularly as to alleged price fixing, by an inquisitorial body with unlimited powers of subpoena.

"The producers and feeders want a real investigation," declared Walter L. Fischer, attorney for the market committee of the National Live Stock association. "They do not believe that other inquiries along this line have been real."

The subcommittee met to consider a resolution introduced by Representative Borland of Missouri, which would direct the federal trade commission to determine whether the packers are violating the anti-trust laws. Representatives of both packers and growers were present, but the only speakers were Mr. Fischer and members of the committee. It probably will be several days before the packers have an opportunity to present their side of the case.

London, April 4.—The American consul at Cork reports to the American embassy here that the steamship Berwinstone, which was sunk on March 15, had four Americans on board. None of these were hurt.

RETURNED BABY'S BANK.

Thief Robbed the House, but Brought That Back.

Sierra Vista, Cal.—A thief with a conscience recently entered the home of Clark Rubido here and after decamping with valuables amounting to $100 returned to the burglarized house and deposited a child's bank containing $2 in pennies, which had been part of the loot, on the front porch.

The Rubido family visited friends in Los Angeles that day, and about noon a neighbor, Mrs. Caroline Martin, saw a well dressed young man carrying a suit case walk up to the front door of the Rubido home, fumble with the lock a moment and walk in.

Mrs. Martin thought the stranger was probably a friend of the Rubidos, and when the young man reappeared some time after, still carrying the suit case, she told him that the Rubido family was passing the day in the city. The young man thanked her and hurried on.

Half an hour later Mrs. Martin saw the young man come back and deposit something on the front porch of the house.
When the Rubidos returned they found that the pleasant faced young man had carried away all their silver, several articles of jewelry and $30. The baby's penny bank, which had been returned, was about the only movable valuable not taken.

Delay Explained.
"What are you doing there, Ellen?"
"Excuse me, miss, but my apron caught in the door."

LIVELY BLAZE

(By American Press)
New York, April 4.—The liveliest kind of a fire, feeding on the paper stock stored at 16 and 18 Beekman street, combined with much water and more undulated excitement, held up business in the entire block. The fire went through the two buildings from the roof to the ground floor, leaving only hollow shells. There it did the bulk of the $75,000 damage.

VOTE ON BOOZE

CHICAGO, April 4.—Vice and dry elections are being held in 165 townships in Illinois today, in which there are 214 cities, villages and settlements. Of the larger cities voting there are nine—Aurora, Dixon, Moline, Waukegan, Lincoln, Alton, Galena, Rock Island and Danville—which are wet. The larger dry cities are Elgin, Decatur, Freeport and Bloomington.

RETURNED BABY'S BANK.

Thief Robbed the House, but Brought That Back.

Sierra Vista, Cal. — A thief with a conscience recently entered the home of Clark Rubido here and after decamping with valuables amounting to $100 returned to the burglarized house and deposited a child's bank containing $2 in pennies, which had been part of the loot, on the front porch.

The Rubido family visited friends in Los Angeles that day, and about noon a neighbor, Mrs. Caroline Martin, saw a well dressed young man carrying a suit case walk up to the front door of the Rubido home, fumble with the lock a moment and walk in.

Mrs. Martin thought the stranger was probably a friend of the Rubidos, and when the young man reappeared some time after, still carrying the suit case, she told him that the Rubido family was passing the day in the city. The young man thanked her and hurried on.

Half an hour later Mrs. Martin saw the young man come back and deposit something on the front porch of the house.

When the Rubidos returned they found that the pleasant faced young man had carried away all their silver, several articles of jewelry and $30. The baby's penny bank, which had been returned, was about the only movable valuable not taken.

Delay Explained.

"What are you doing there, Ellen?" "Excuse me, miss, but my apron caught in this door." "But you left the room ten minutes ago!" "Yes, miss, but I only just found it out."—Passing Show.

YOU think of the Baltimore & Ohio System in terms of the past—as a great scenic and historical route—as America's first railway—should know it today. In past four years $100,000,000 have been used to improve the roadbed to straighten curves, to add new tracks, to better the equipment. Millions have been spent for coaches and engines on the all-steel, electric lighted trains, with an excellent dining car service. All the attractions of Nature which made it "the scenic route of Eastern America" are still here for you—but we have made them $100,000,000 better. MAYOR HAS NO SYMPATHY FOR WIFE-BEATERS

A. C. Sparks, wife beater, who was fined $200 and the costs and given six months in the Xenia work house when he appeared before Mayor Oster Monday afternoon, nearly fell off his chair when the stiff fine was announced.

Sparks admitted that he might have struck his wife, but stated that if he did so he did not intend to. However, he admitted that gentle little differences were of frequent occurrence between himself and wife and that he remembered the good wife firing a teacup at his head and otherwise showing her affection for him, including some tweaks of a luxurious growth of his hair. He had been drinking, it is claimed.

The wife remembered that her affectionate husband had struck her a number of vicious blows, kicked her, and was in the act of stabbing her with a butcher knife when she took drastic measures to stop him if possible.

When he first appeared before Mayor Oster he decided to stand trial but when he asked his better half what he should do, she promptly told him that pleading guilty would be the best way for him to get out of the trouble.

Sparks then changed his plea of not guilty to guilty and was fined $200 and the costs and given six months in the Xenia workhouse, with no alternative but to pay and serve the time, or work out both fine and the six months.

In handing out the stiff sentence Mayor Oster took occasion to say that he had no sympathy for wife-beaters and intended giving each wife-beater who came before him, the limit.

Mrs. Sparks appeared in court with her face badly discolored from the effects of the heavy blows dealt her, and could hardly walk without pain as a result of kicks administered by her brutal husband.

MINSHALL WOMAN IS STILL AT LARGE

So far Elizabeth Minshall, alleged dealer in intoxicating liquors who gave the police the slip a few days ago and left for parts unknown, has not been hard from.

The woman's whereabouts is unknown, but supposed to be in one of the adjoining cities.

CASES ASSIGNED

Following are cases assigned for trial to Judge Clarence Curtin:

Thursday, April 6th—Ambach vs Taylor, and Hays against Wilt.

Friday, April 7th—Marks vs Profit.

COUNCIL MEETING

A large number of citizens, most of whom were compelled to stand as a result of insufficient seats in the council room, attended the monthly session of the city solons, Monday night, and a large mass of business was transacted in almost record breaking time.

Preceding the council meeting a joint meeting of township trustees and council was held, the report of Cemetery Superintendent Gossard was read and filed. For the three months $1342.08 was paid in; $1,642.86 paid out, leaving a balance of $299.22 with a time deposit of $5500. Forty-one interments were made during the first three months this year.

Market Wants Paving.
A petition from Market street property owners to pave Market street from the D. T. & I. to the intersection of Columbus avenue, was presented by Dr. Dennis and referred to the Service Committee.

Wm. Craig asked for sidewalk improvement on Lewis street, where the walks have all but disappeared under the soil. This was referred to the Service Committee.

W. W. Hamilton was allowed 21 feet reduction of frontage on East street, where part of the street intersection had been assessed against the Hamilton property.

Street Lighting.
Solicitor Gregg presented plans and specifications for street lighting and a resolution to accompany them. He stated that the plans and specifications were similar to those submitted to H. Whitford Jones, except that the White Way was eliminated and the deposit of $7500 was cut to $500.

A resolution approving the plans and specifications was passed. A resolution authorizing the Safety-Service Director to advertise for bids also was passed. Plans call for 412 lamps of 100 c. p. and 36 of 250 c. p. to burn on an all night and every night schedule of 4,000 hours. The contract is to be for a period of ten years.

The eastern avenue improvement was ordered made. It was argued the improvement would permit the fire department to take care of that portion of the city to better advantage. City bears one-third of the expense.

Auditor McFadden's report showed the following balance March 31st, General Fund, $1398.59; Safety, $1,351.16; Health, $159.91; Service, $4,279.22.

Mayor Oster's report for March showed $79.80 in fines and costs.

The communication from the State Board of Health, asking for proof of council's intention to proceed with a sanitary sewer system, was placed on file.

Want Improvements.

A petition to improve Van Deman Avenue, from Lakeview Avenue to Dayton avenue, was presented and referred to the service committee. Grading, macadamizing and curb and gutter improvements are desired.

An ordinance determining to proceed with the improvement of Ogle and Delaware streets, was passed.

A resolution to improve Main street from Temple to Paint, by paving, was referred to the Service Committee.

A resolution to Pave Rawlings street from Delaware to Lewis, was referred to the Service Committee.

Another resolution, to improve Fayette street from East to Elm streets, by paving 40 feet in width, was read and passed.

To Make Fills.

A resolution authorizing Safety-Service Director Hillery to place the earth removed from various streets under improvement on Water street and the new street between Millikan avenue and Dayton avenue, south of the Willis Lumber Yards and Sales Barn, was passed. This will permit of the fills being made without cost to the city, and save enormous expense, it is pointed out.

Then came a resolution authorizing payment of $41.93 to the Safety-Service Director for salary preceding passage of the ordinance fixing his salary.

Prices For Electricity.

An ordinance to regulate the price to be charged consumers of electric current for light and power, was passed, to become effective May 10, and be in force for a period of ten years.

The prices fixed are:

Residence—10c for first 10 k. w. and all over 10 k. w., 6c. One cent discount per k. w. if paid before tenth of succeeding month. Minimum charge 50c per month.

Commercial—First 10 k. w., 10c; next 100 k. w., 8c; next 300 k. w., 6c; all over 500 k. w., 4c. One cent discount per k. w.; 50c minimum.

Power—First 60 k. w., 7c; next 60 k. w., 6c; next 300 k. w., 3½c; discount one cent per k. w.; minimum charge per month, $1 for first h. p. connected and 50c for each additional h. p. connected.

$1 is provided for resetting a meter where it has been disconnected for non-payment of bill.

The ordinance was passed by unanimous vote.

An ordinance to increase the salary of the driver of the motor truck to $75 per month, was referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

Application was made for a water main on Millikan Avenue, for fire hydrants on Paint street between North and Forest streets, and for fire plug on Willard street. This was referred to the Service Committee.

Howell suggested the necessity of changing the water mains on Hinde street, stating that in some instances they were less than 18 inches beneath the surface. The affair was referred to the engineer and Safety-Service Director for investigation and action.

The clerk of council was notified to serve notice on citizens where sidewalk improvements were necessary.

Street Cleaning.

The question of street cleaning was taken up. Members Sheets, Rowe and Bloomer praising the work of the Studebaker flusher demonstrated in Chillicothe last week. Mr. Crawford of the Studebaker company was present and explained the flusher and its merits at some length.

Council was in favor of early action on the proposal, and a meeting is to be held Thursday night for definite action. It is expected that arrangements will be made for letting of contract for street cleaning by flusher. Various members expressed the belief that the only satisfactory method of cleaning was to flush the streets.

Attorney J. D. Post addressed council, stating that he had been requested to call council's attention to the city's indebtedness, and that extensive street improvements must be halted under the plan of the city paying one-third, or the city's bonded indebtedness would exceed the point fixed by law. He stated that he believed $20,000 was about the extent of further bonded indebtedness. Wm. Worthington took issue with him, stating that he believed the $130,000 voted by the people would be excluded from the limited indebtedness.

MORE NEW MEMBERS ADDED LAST NIGHT

Twenty-seven new members were added to the Fayette County Fish & Game Protective Association, at the monthly meeting held in the probate judge's office Monday night, bringing the number of new ones this year up to 116, and making a total of 409 members for the society.

President Cave appointed a committee consisting of W. H. Hottesheimer, H. C. Ireland and Walter Craig to select a place for the annual picnic this summer, several locations having been offered in various parts of the county.

President Cave reported that the Fish cars were started out by the State this week, and that within the next few days a large shipment of fish should arrive here.

TO ARGUE MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

Attorneys Gregg & Gregg will go to Waverly Monday of next week to argue the motion for a new trial in the case of Ohio against Samuel Whited, and it is understood that if a new trial is refused, the attorneys will immediately prosecute error with the firm conviction that the appellate court will reverse the verdict returned in the Pike county common pleas court.

The two attorneys claim that the proceedings in Waverly were fraught with glaring errors which should make their case an easy one in the appellate court.

From apparently reliable sources comes the announcement that the case will take a decidedly sensational turn within the next few days.

Mrs. H. C. Parrett extended the hospitality of her very attractive bungalow to the April meeting of the D. A. R., Monday-afternoon. Entertaining with her were Mesdames H. L. Hadley, W. B. Woodward, Wm. Sprenger, Mart G. Morris, of Austin, Anna Hays, Howard McLean, Joseph H. Harper, Charles Allen, Howard Jefferson of Bloomingburg, Henry Willis, Misses Fannie Parrett, Ida Hays.

Mrs. Woodward presented a fine paper on "The Mother's of Presidents" and Mrs. Constance B. Claggen delighted the Daughters with two brilliant piano renditions.

The afternoon was most enjoyable socially, with delicious refreshments served and clusters of daffodils and jonquils adding springtime beauty.

Considering the inclement day the attendance was excellent. Mrs. S. E. Boggs and Mrs. Wash Lough, of Good Hope were out of town guests.

The Regent, Mrs. Frank M. Kennedy, presented the call for Belgian relief, as it had been sent out to Daughters individually, with packages of Belgian flags to be sold as a means of raising funds. The Daughters decided not to take up the work as they had previously engaged in it and found home calls demanding all the aid they could give.

Miss Mary Pyley, assisted by Mrs. G. B. Hammond, delightfully entertained the M. H. G. Club of the First Presbyterian Sunday School, Monday evening, at the hospitable Pyley home, adorned with potted plants.

The girls enjoyed chatting over their fancy work and the tempting luncheon served by the hostesses.

The Pythian Sisters are interestedly completing plans for the Leap Year Dance, to be held at the K. of P. Castle, Wednesday night, April 26th, for the benefit of the Welfare Association.

VILLA NOW SOUTH OF CHIHUAHUA

Leads American Pursuers By at Least Sixty Miles.

BANDIT IS NOT WOUNDED

Did Not Take Part In Any Fighting With Either American or Carranza Troops. According to a Story Reaching the Border—Outlaw Believed to Be Headed Toward Parral—Mexican Situation.

El Paso, Tex., April 4.—General Villa, unhurt and accompanied by only eight men, was at Satevo, fifty miles south of Chihuahua City, two days ago.

This was the intelligence brought to the border from Mexican sources. If this information is correct, it bears out previous reports that the bandit chief is headed toward Parral and is leading his American pursuers by at least sixty miles. The nearest point to Satevo which the American troops are known to have reached is San Antonio, sixty miles to the northwest.

The route said to have been taken by Villa is one with which he is thoroughly familiar and which, indeed, is known among the peons as "Pancho's Road." From Guerrero it leads across the Continental Divide, through the Bechibua Pass, into a broad valley which runs east to San Andres, Villa's old headquarters, thence south to Santa Ysabel, the scene of Villa's massacre of eighteen American mining men, and then southeast through Satevo to Parral.

The man who brought the story of Villa's arrival at Satevo here gave a circumstantial account of the bandit's maneuvers and plan of campaign. "Villa," he said, "has never taken part in any fighting with either American or Carranza troops. He left the main body of his troops in the Guerrero district, with orders to oppose as far as they could the American advance. At the same time the peons were instructed to give information freely to American officers, always provided that the information was false. The story of Villa being wounded was carefully concocted for the express purpose of misleading General Pershing and Colonel Dodd into the belief that the bandit was in hiding in the mountains, and thereby inducing them to split their forces into small searching parties, who would waste their time in the wild Sierras, while Villa was making his way safely southward."

This part of the story is given color by the admission of General Pershing that his intelligence department has been given much misleading information and that it was becoming more difficult to secure reliable guides.

LIKE FICTION

(By American Press)

Urbana, O., April 4.—While hunting mushrooms in the woods on the Crane farm, north of here, Donald Powell and Edward Woodford, Urbana boys, found a silver spoon protruding from the ground near a stump. When they finished digging they had uncovered 394 pieces of silverware, worth more than $1,000. In sacks, they brought the find to Urbana and turned it over to the police. Much of the find has been identified as having been stolen from the Kirby, Bowen, Kendall, Reynolds, Wright, Leffel and Reed homes thirty years ago. Thieves operating here then were never apprehended. The silverware is in a good state of preservation. The finders will be given all unclaimed pieces, which may be about one-third of the lot.

DRYS GAIN

(By American Press)

Detroit, Mich., April 4.—With sufficient returns in to determine the results on local option in twelve of the fourteen counties in which the question was submitted, the dry forces held their forts in the four dry counties and gained one of the nine wet counties, Clare. Ingham county, the great storm center, remains dry. Jackson county, the second largest in which the question was submitted, remains wet by from 700 to 900. Notwithstanding his declaration that his candidacy was a joke, Henry Ford made a remarkable run against Senator William Alden Smith as the state's preference as a presidential candidate.

The city's application is based on the ground that the company is not giving service; that the citizens are handicapped and business seriously affected.

ALLIES REPLY TO PROTESTS

Entente Allies Justify Seizure of Mails at Sea.

Washington, April 4.—The entente allies' reply to the American protests against mail seizures was presented to the state department by the British ambassador. It upholds the allies' legal right to exercise control over mail or board ship the same as merchandise, and justifies seizures on the ground that Germany has been using the mails to transmit all kinds of merchandise, including war contraband.

Instances are given with appended proof where Germany sought to use the parcel post systems of neutral countries in efforts to replenish supplies badly needed for the prosecution of the war. The entente allies take the view that Germany has been imposing on the technicalities of postal regulations to use the mails for forbidden purposes. The allies fail to see why this should be called justifiable simply because contraband is labeled parcel post before it is sent.

The allies' memorandum also points out that Germany began seizing mail months ago, and that no protest was made by the United States to Germany. The allies, however, agree to refrain from seizing or confiscating bona fide correspondence letters, or dispatches, provided they are assured of their genuineness. But they claim the right to investigation.

KINK IN LINE IS REMOVED

Germans Occupy French Positions Near Haucourt.

FRENCH SCORE AT VAUX

Desperate Counter Attack Nets the Defenders of Verdun the Western Part of the Village—New German Offensive Imminent On the Eastern Front—Operations of the Day at Other Points.

London, April 4.—Having straightened out their line by occupying all French positions north of the Forges brook, between Haucourt and Bethincourt, northwest of Verdun, the Germans now are engaged in shelling the region of the Bourrus wood, some five miles northwest of the fortress.

The Germans have occupied the Haucourt-Bethincourt front, following a vigorous attack, in which, however, the Germans met no foe, the French having evacuated their positions at night, without the Germans observing the movement. From their new position south of the Forges brook, and at Bethincourt, the French poured a direct and flanking fire into the attacking Germans, who suffered heavy casualties.

The battle for the important village of Vaux is still raging most furiously, but the day's end saw the French victorious in a violent counter attack, the first one on a large scale thus far attempted and the most successful counter movement undertaken by the defenders as regards results.

In fighting of the most savage character, which lasted twenty-four hours, the French counter attack gained steadily until they had recaptured the western part of the village and besides thrown the Germans back to the northern edge of the Callette wood and to the pond north of Vaux. All of the positions had been firmly held by the Germans after their latest drive on this sector. Thus a part of the two mile gain made by the Germans was wrested from them by the French in the counter attack.

Great activity on the part of the Germans on the eastern front is reported in the Russian war office statement. The general impression gained in military circles here is that the Germans are about to launch a general offensive with Riga, Dvinsk and possibly Minsk as the chief objectives. It is pointed out that they are choosing for this movement a favorable moment, as the Russians after their recent costly and unsuccessful onslaughts are not believed to be at their best as far as power of reliance and equipment and artillery are concerned.

Washington, April 4.—The United States Asiatic fleet, in command of Admiral Winterhalter, will act as protector of American and other foreign interests in China if revolutionary activity threatens serious disturbances. Orders to this effect have been cable to Admiral Winterhalter, whose flagship, the Brooklyn, is due at Shanghai. Admiral Winterhalter has been directed to use his own discretion in distributing the naval forces under his command in Chinese waters. The Asiatic fleet now comprises twelve vessels, seven of which are cruising on the Yang Tse river.

Marines from the United States gunboat Wilmington went ashore at Swatow Sunday, where the Chinese troops have declared their independence of the central government. The detachment reconnoitered and found the city quiet.

WILD WORK

(By American Press)

Babylon, L. I., April 4.—Equipped with a revolver, Captain William N. Donley, forty, entrenched himself in the second story of his little home and held at bay Sheriff Odell, a force of deputies and the greater part of the local population. Donley had shot four persons, none of them, however, dangerously. To all appearances Donley is insane. His mind was unbalanced, acquaintances say, as a result of his arrest and conviction last week on a charge of shooting ducks during the closed season. Fines aggregating $600 were assessed against him. Donley feared financial ruin if forced to pay this amount of money and brooded constantly over his misfortune.

EVEN RIOTING HAS FAILED

(By American Press)

Chicago, April 4.—Rioting in which a score or more persons suffered bruised heads and more than 100 cans of milk were spilled into the roadway was reported from northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin towns, where the dairy farmers are on strike against the distributors for a 20 per cent increase in the price.

Reports from the various centers where the fight rages the fiercest indicate that the climax of the trouble will come this week. The striking farmers claim that they have the towns from which the heaviest shipments are made to the Chicago market completely tied up and the distributors admitted that surplus supplies will have been worked off by the middle of the week, and that what will happen after that can not be forecasted.

The most serious trouble was at Dundee, where farmers, pickets, deputies and town people all took a hand in the fighting. Six deputies drew revolvers. Pickets forced them into automobiles and drove them out of town. At Gilbert twenty-one cans of milk were emptied into the streets. The fighting was stopped by deputies.

AT CLEVELAND, TOO

(By American Press)

Cleveland, April 4.—Shortage of milk has become acute in Cleveland as a result of the deadlock between producers and wholesale men. Many of the dairymen were reported throwing milk to hogs rather than sell at the prices offered in the new schedule of prices made by the wholesale men. Officials of the Northern Ohio Milk Dealers' association reported that all of the association's 600 had quit shipping milk to Cleveland and allege they were asked to ship at a loss.

Juarez, Mexico, April 4.—Serious food riots, in which at least 1,000 women and children participated, occurred in Torreon, according to information reaching here. Crowds rushed through the streets crying for corn. The corn meal was only obtainable at fabulous prices. From the demonstration the riot grew. Soldiers were called out, but they refused to shoot into the crowds of women and children. No one was killed during the rioting, but many buildings were badly damaged. El Paso, Tex., April 4.—General Villa, unhurt and accompanied by only eight men, was at Satevo, fifty miles south of Chihuahua City, two days ago.

This was the intelligence brought to the border from Mexican sources.

If this information is correct, it bears out previous reports that the bandit chief is headed toward Parral and is leading his American pursuers by at least sixty miles. The nearest point to Satevo which the American troops are known to have reached is San Antonio, sixty miles to the northwest.

The route said to have been taken by Villa is one with which he is thoroughly familiar and which, indeed, is known among the peons as "Pancho's Road." From Guerrero it leads across the Continental Divide, through the Bachimba Pass, into a broad valley which runs east to San Andres, Villa's old headquarters—thence south to Santa Ysabel, the scene of Villa's massacre of eighteen American mining men, and then southeast through Satevo to Parral.

The man who brought the story of Villa's arrival at Satevo here gave a circumstantial account of the bandit's maneuvers and plan of campaign. "Villa," he said, "has never taken part in any fighting with either American or Carranza troops. He left the main body of his troops in the Guerrero district, with orders to oppose as far as they could the American advance. At the same time the peons were instructed to give information freely to American officers, always provided that the information was false. The story of Villa being wounded was carefully concocted for the express purpose of misleading General Pershing and Colonel Dodd into the belief that the bandit was in hiding in the mountains, and thereby inducing them to split their forces into small searching parties, who would waste their time in the wild Sierras, while Villa was making his way safely southward."

This part of the story is given color by the admission of General Pershing that his intelligence department has been given much misleading information and that it was becoming more difficult to secure reliable guides.

Urbana, O., April 4.—While hunting mushrooms in the woods on the Crane farm, north of here, Donald Powell and Edward Woolford, Urbana boys, found a silver spoon protruding from the ground near a stump. When they finished digging they had uncovered 394 pieces of silverware, worth more than $1,000. In sacks, they brought the find to Urbana and turned it over to the police. Much of the find has been identified as having been stolen from the Kirby, Bowen, Kendall, Reynolds, Wright, Leffel and Reed homes thirty years ago. Thieves operating here then were never apprehended. The silverware is in a good state of preservation. The finders will be given all unclaimed pieces, which may be about one-third of the lot.

ALLIES REPLY TO PROTESTS

Entente Allies Justify Seizure of Mails at Sea.

Washington, April 4.—The entente allies' reply to the American protests against mail seizures was presented to the state department by the British ambassador. It upholds the allies' legal right to exercise control over mail or board ship the same as merchandise, and justifies seizures on the ground that Germany has been using the mails to transmit all kinds of merchandise, including war contraband.

Instances are given with appended proof where Germany sought to use the parcel post systems of neutral countries in efforts to replenish supplies badly needed for the prosecution of the war. The entente allies take the view that Germany has been imposing on the technicalities of postal regulations to use the mails for forbidden purposes. The allies fail to see why this should be called justifiable simply because contraband is labeled parcel post before it is sent.

The allies' memorandum also points out that Germany began seizing mail months ago, and that no protest was made by the United States to Germany. The allies, however, agree to refrain from seizing or confiscating bona fide correspondence letters, or dispatches, provided they are assured of their genuineness. But they claim the right to investigation.

FRENCH SCORE AT VAUX

Desperate Counter Attack Nets the Defenders of Verdun the Western Part of the Village—New German Offensive Imminent On the Eastern Front—Operations of the Day at Other Points.

London, April 4.—Having straightened out their line by occupying all French positions north of the Forges brook, between Haucourt and Bethincourt, northwest of Verdun, the Germans now are engaged in shelling the region of the Bourrus wood, some five miles northwest of the fortress.

The Germans have occupied the Haucourt-Bethincourt front, following a vigorous attack, in which, however, the Germans met no foe, the French having evacuated their positions at night, without the Germans observing the movement. From their new position south of the Forges brook, and at Bethincourt, the French poured a direct and flanking fire into the attacking Germans, who suffered heavy casualties.

The battle for the important village of Vaux is still raging most furiously, but the day's end saw the French victorious in a violent counter attack, the first one on a large scale thus far attempted and the most successful counter movement undertaken by the defenders as regards results.

In fighting of the most savage character, which lasted twenty-four hours, the French counter attack gained steadily until they had recaptured the western part of the village and besides thrown the Germans back to the northern edge of the Callette wood and to the pond north of Vaux. All of the positions had been firmly held by the Germans after their latest drive on this sector. Thus a part of the two mile gain made by the Germans was wrested from them by the French in the counter attack.

Great activity on the part of the Germans on the eastern front is reported in the Russian war office statement. The general impression gained in military circles here is that the Germans are about to launch a general offensive with Riga, Dvinsk and possibly Minsk as the chief objectives. It is pointed out that they are choosing for this movement a favorable moment, as the Russians after their recent costly and unsuccessful onslaughts are not believed to be at their best as far as power of reliance and equipment and artillery are concerned.

Babylon, L. I., April 4.—Equipped with a revolver, Captain William N. His mind was unbalanced, acquaintances say, as a result of his arrest and conviction last week on a charge of shooting ducks during the closed season. Fines aggregating $600 were assessed against him. Donley feared financial ruin if forced to pay this amount of money and brooded constantly over his misfortune.

EVEN RIOTING HAS FAILED

(By American Press)

Chicago, April 4.—Rioting in which a score or more persons suffered bruised heads and more than 100 cans of milk were spilled into the roadway was reported from northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin towns, where the dairy farmers are on strike against the distributors for a 20 per cent increase in the price.

Reports from the various centers where the fight rages the fiercest indicate that the climax of the trouble will come this week. The striking farmers claim that they have the towns from which the heaviest shipments are made to the Chicago market completely tied up and the distributors admitted that surplus supplies will have been worked off by the middle of the week, and that what will happen after that can not be forecasted.

The most serious trouble was at Dundee, where farmers, pickets, deputies and town people all took a hand in the fighting. Six deputies drew revolvers. Pickets forced them into automobiles and drove them out of town. At Gilbert twenty-one cans of milk were emptied into the streets. The fighting was stopped by deputies.

NOVELIZED FROM THE MOVING PICTURE PLAY OF THE SAME NAME. PRODUCED BY THE SIGNAL FILM CORPORATION. COPYRIGHT, 1915, BY FRANK H. SPEARMAN.

SYNOPSIS.

Little Helen Holmes, daughter of General Holmes, railroad man, is rescued from imminent danger on a scenic railroad by George Storm, a newsboy. Grown to young womanhood, Helen saves Storm, now a fireman, her father, and his friends Amos Rhinelander, financier, and Robert Seagrue, promoter, from a threatened collision. Safebreakers employed by Seagrue steal General Holmes' survey plans of the cut off line for the Tidewater, fatally wounding the general and escape. Her father's estate badly involved by his death, Helen goes to work on the Tidewater. Helen recovers the survey plans from Seagrue, and though they are taken from her, finds an accidentally made proof of the survey blueprint. Storm is employed by Rhinelander. Spike, befriended by Helen, in his turn saves her and the right-of-way contracts when Seagrue kidnaps her. Helen and Storm win for Rhinelander a race against Seagrue for right of way.

They arrived together just in time to find Seagrue putting wood on Helen's fire. He turned from his peaceful role to greet Rhinelander, quite casually, with a good morning; Helen in good spirits, was stepping rapidly around preparing a meal. Rhinelander looked from one to the other in amazement, and striding forward, confronted Seagrue. "What does all this thing mean?" he demanded angrily. "What are you up to now, Seagrue?" Seagrue met the wrathful greeting composedly. His answer was amiable and untroubled. "We have been talking over old times, Uncle Amos." He indicated Helen by the slightest nod. "I've told Helen, what you well know, that everything I have in the world has been tied up in this fight. But I've also told her I would sacrifice every bit of it to regain your good will and hers. I'm sorry for the lengths I've gone to. It's been a mistake. It doesn't reflect any credit on me, I know that. But can't we forget it? Forget everything, here and now, and work together, you and I, for the future instead of trying to cut each other's throats? Why not combine our interests, uncle, and take a fresh start?"

But Rhinelander, gentle though he was in disposition and forbearing to a degree that surprised his friends, was yet too old in the ways of the world to put his trust in assurances without deeds to back them. He regarded Seagrue firmly. "This fight," he said briefly, "was not one of our choosing, Seagrue. You forced us into it," he reminded his nephew. "We cannot compromise now when sure of success."

Seagrue, whether hopeless, or dogged in his attitude, took the rebuke hard. He did not resent it but he looked down and out. So much so that Helen felt sorry. She even made occasion, as he stood gloomily watching her, to go over to him and express her regret that Rhinelander did not feel, as she did, that it might be better for everybody to try to be friends once more.

Storm, who had stood apart and was churning inside at the situation, now intervened: "Come over to camp, Helen. That man doesn't mean a word of what he says. You're wasting time listening to him. Come along."

House Naval Committee May Offer Compromise.

HEARINGS ARE CONCLUDED

An Appeal For Support of the Administration's Five Year Building Policy Made by Secretary Daniels, Who Closes a Three Day Statement Before the Committee—Defends Department's Course.

Washington, April 4.—The house naval committee brought to an end the hearings on the 1917 naval appropriation bill, when Secretary Daniels closed a three day statement before the committee with a final appeal in support of the administration's five year building program.

A subcommittee will begin immediately framing the naval bill. It became known that a determined effort would be made by the committee to provide for six capital ships, two dreadnaughts and four battle cruisers, as a compromise between the proposals of the secretary and the navy board.

Secretary Daniels evaded all efforts to get from him a statement as to what relative place among naval powers the United States should occupy. He said the five year program he had mapped out would not put the country in second place, in his judgment, and that the present congress could not be asked to make up for the deficiencies of twenty years past. At the close of the European war, he said, he believed a great opportunity would come for international limitation of armament and with a strong building program adopted, the United States would be in a better position to urge that movement successfully than if its fleet was weak.

Secretary Daniels replied at length to criticisms of himself, implied or stated, during the testimony of Rear Admiral Fiske, former aid for operations, and became involved in a warm controversy with Representative Britten, Republican.

Responding to questions from Chairman Padgett, he said Admiral Fiske had sought appointment as commander of the Atlantic fleet when Rear Admiral Badger retired; he had repeatedly requested it, to the secretary's great embarrassment. Mr. Daniels said he told Admiral Fiske that Rear Admiral Fletcher, then commanding a squadron in Mexican waters, seemed entitled to the appointment.

Admiral Fiske replied that Fletcher did not want it, the secretary said, and asked that the appointment be held up until he could write to Fletcher. This was done, Mr. Daniels said, and when Fletcher replied that he would be honored by the command, he was appointed; and from that time on Admiral Fiske was not in harmony with the department.

The GIRL and the GAME

A Story of Mountain Railroad Life
By FRANK H. SPEARMAN

AUTHOR OF "WHISPERING SMITH," "THE MOUNTAIN DIVIDE," "STRATEGY OF GREAT RAILROADS," ETC.

NOVELIZED FROM THE MOVING PICTURE PLAY OF THE SAME NAME. PRODUCED BY THE SIGNAL FILM CORPORATION. COPYRIGHT, 1915, BY FRANK H. SPEARMAN.

SYNOPSIS.

Little Helen Holmes, daughter of General Holmes, railroad man, is rescued from imminent danger on a scenic railroad by George Storm, a newsboy. Grown to young womanhood, Helen saves Storm, now a fireman, her father, and his friends Amos Rhinelander, financier, and Robert Seagru, promoter, from a threatened collision. Safebreakers employed by Seagru steal General Holmes' survey plans of the cut off line for the Tidewater, fatally wound the general and escape. Her father's estate badly involved by his death, Helen goes to work on the Tidewater. Helen recovers the survey plans from Seagru, and though they are taken from her, finds an accidentally made proof of the survey blueprint. Storm is employed by Rhinelander. Spike, befriended by Helen, in his turn saves her and the right-of-way contracts when Seagru kidnaps her. Helen and Storm win for Rhinelander a race against Seagru for right of way.

They arrived together just in time to find Seagru putting wood on Helen's fire. He turned from his peaceful role to greet Rhinelander, quite casually, with a good morning; Helen in good spirits, was stepping rapidly around preparing a meal. Rhinelander looked from one to the other in amazement, and striding forward, confronted Seagru. "What does all this thing mean?" he demanded angrily. "What are you up to now, Seagru?" Seagru met the wrathful greeting composedly. His answer was amiable and untruffled. "We have been talking over old times, Uncle Amos." He indicated Helen by the slightest nod. "I've told Helen, what you well know, that everything I have in the world has been tied up in this fight. But I've also told her I would sacrifice every bit of it to regain your good will and hers. I'm sorry for the lengths I've gone to. It's been a mistake. It doesn't reflect any credit on me, I know that. But can't we forget it? Forget everything, here and now, and work together, you and I, for the future instead of trying to cut each other's throats? Why not combine our interests, uncle, and take a fresh start?"

But Rhinelander, gentle though he was in disposition and forbearing to a degree that surprised his friends, was yet too old in the ways of the world to put his trust in assurances without deeds to back them. He regarded Seagru firmly: "This fight," he said briefly, "was not one of our choosing, Seagru. You forced us into it," he reminded his nephew. "We cannot compromise now when sure of success."

Seagru, whether hopeless, or dogged in his attitude, took the rebuke hard. He did not resent it but he looked down and out. So much so that Helen felt sorry. She even made occasion, as he stood gloomily watching her, to go over to him and express her regret that Rhinelander did not feel, as she did, that it might be better for everybody to try to be friends once more.

Storm, who had stood apart and was churning inside at the situation, now intervened: "Come over to camp, Helen. That man doesn't mean a word of what he says. You're wasting time listening to him. Come along."

Nyal Liver Salts

For Liver Faults

WHEN the liver is upset the whole system is out of tune. The general condition of your health is dependent upon normal liver action. To correct constipation and liven the lazy liver we unhesitatingly suggest the use of NYAL LIVER SALTS. Take it in the morning just before breakfast—you will feel better all day. The sluggish, inactive liver makes you feel out of sorts; slows you down; causes biliousness and sick headache. You cannot feel right when your liver is all wrong. When you feel run down and seem to lack endurance—your liver is probably out of order—undoubtedly it is badly in need of a good dose of NYAL LIVER SALTS. For prompt satisfactory results you can depend upon NYAL LIVER SALTS—a saline laxative that keeps the liver working right. Remember, that for stomach faults you should use NYAL LIVER SALTS. 25c and 50c the bottle.

House Naval Committee May Offer Compromise.

HEARINGS ARE CONCLUDED

An Appeal For Support of the Administration's Five Year Building Policy Made by Secretary Daniels, Who Closes a Three Day Statement Before the Committee—Defends Department's Course.

Washington, April 4.—The house naval committee brought to an end the hearings on the 1917 naval appropriation bill, when Secretary Daniels closed a three day statement before the committee with a final appeal in support of the administration's five year building program.

A subcommittee will begin immediately framing the naval bill. It became known that a determined effort would be made by the committee to provide for six capital ships, two dreadnaughts and four battle cruisers, as a compromise between the proposals of the secretary and the navy board.

Secretary Daniels evaded all efforts to get from him a statement as to what relative place among naval powers the United States should occupy. He said the five year program he had mapped out would not put the country in second place. In his judgment, and that the present congress could not be asked to make up for the deficiencies of twenty years past. At the close of the European war, he said, he believed a great opportunity would come for international limitation of armament and with a strong building program adopted the United States would be in a better position to urge that movement successfully than if its fleet was weak.

Secretary Daniels replied at length to criticisms of himself, implied or stated, during the testimony of Rear Admiral Fiske, former aid for operations, and became involved in a warm controversy with Representative Britten, Republican.

Responding to questions from Chairman Padgett, he said Admiral Fiske had sought appointment as commander of the Atlantic fleet when Rear Admiral Badger retired; he had repeatedly requested it, to the secretary's great embarrassment.

Mr. Daniels said he told Admiral Fiske that Rear Admiral Fletcher, then commanding a squadron in Mexican waters, seemed entitled to the appointment.

Admiral Fiske replied that Fletcher did not want it, the secretary said, and asked that the appointment be held up until he could write to Fletcher. This was done, Mr. Daniels said, and when Fletcher replied that he would be honored by the command, he was appointed; and from that time on Admiral Fiske was not in harmony with the department.

ALIBI

(By American Press)

London, April 4.—It is officially stated that nothing has been done by the allies which could be responsible for the disturbed conditions in Holland. There is not the slightest intention of the allies of landing in Holland, nor was Holland discussed in the Paris conference of the allies, except perhaps in regard to the blockade. It is considered that Germany is circulating reports in Holland for the purpose of making mischief for the allies.

INSIST ON STORY

(By American Press)

El Paso, Tex., April 4.—General Luis Guterrez, commander of the Constitutional forces in Chihuahua, in a message to General Gaviro of the Juarez garrison, positively confirmed reports that Villa was wounded in an engagement with the Carranza troops at Guerrero. He states in his message to General Gaviro that his advice from General Gavazos, who survives the sudden Villista attack, led him to believe that Villa has been conveyed into secret caverns and ravines of the San Andres mountains.

VESSEL HITS ROCK

Tokyo, April 4.—Seventy-six passengers and twenty members of the crew of the small coast steamer Wakatsu Maru are missing and believed to have perished, following the sinking of the vessel near Nagasaki. The vessel struck a hidden ledge of rock and went down in a few minutes.

HONORED IN DEATH

Mr. W. S. Huchison was honored in death as he had been in life by the large assemblage of relatives and friends, neighbors, old soldiers and Sons of Veterans, which filled the First Presbyterian church Tuesday morning for his funeral services.

The G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans attended in a body, occupying seats reserved in the center.

Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, pastor, assisted by Rev. G. H. Harper, of the M. P. church, conducted services of beautiful tribute to the dead and consolation to the living.

Mr. H. D. Chaffin, of Columbus, offered in the obituary an eloquent testimonial to Mr. Huchison, all the more effective coming as it did from one who had known him most of his life.

The hymns, "Nearer My God to Thee," "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "Face to Face" were sweetly sung by Miss Ada Woodward and Mrs. Albert Barney, Mrs. B. F. Davis at the organ.

Following the services a long line of autos and carriages, with the Sons of Veterans marching in a body, proceeded to the local cemetery, where the Sons of Veterans had charge of the burial. Rev. J. Vernon Stone of Grace church was the officiating chaplain and J. M. Harman conducted the impressive ritual service. Frank M. Kennedy made brief remarks in reference to the fact that his father and Mr. Huchison's father had both been killed in the siege of Vicksburg.

There was a great wealth of flowers including a wreath from the B. H. Millikan Post and spray of carnations and lilies from the Sons of Veterans.

The pallbearers were neighbors and Sons of Veterans, Jesse Coil, Carmen Coil, Luther Yeoman, Frank M. Kennedy, Joseph Murphy, Chas. Johnson.
